

Human Rights of People With Disability

Awareness raising - new attitudes to disability

Living independently - to choose where and with whom to live.

Habilitation and rehabilitation

Accessibility

Personal mobility

Freedom of movement and nationality

Right to life

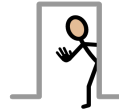

Communication

Adequate standard of living and social protection

Safety in situations of risk and humanitarian emergencies

Privacy

Participation in political and public life, to vote

Equal recognition before the law

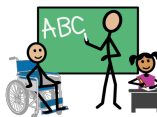

Respect for home and family - to marry and have children

Participation in cultural life, recreation, leisure and sport

Access to justice

Education

Freedom from torture or cruel, treatment or punishment

The right to respect for physical or mental integrity

Health

Freedom from exploitation, violence and abuse

Freedom and safety

Work and employment